Book discussion facilitated by Orville Bultsma, in RM 107 @ 9:00AM Sunday July 24th – September 11th: Whether your suffering has come in the form of chronic illness, disability, divorce, unemployment, crushing disappointment, or the loss of someone you love, A Grace Disguised: How the Soul Grows Through Loss by Jerry Sittser will help you put your thoughts into words in a way that will guide you deeper into your own healing process. Signup sheet for a book at the Welcome Center

Life Groups (small groups): Do you have an idea for either a Bible study or topic study that can be used by small groups in Calvary? Ask your relatives and friends if they can recommend something that we might use at Calvary this coming fall. A suggestion does not mean you need to lead the group! However, if you want to lead a group that is also welcomed. Contact Brenda Nugteren at 628-8012 or nugterenrb@gmail with your ideas.

The Central Iowa Volunteer Ambassadors of Bible League International would like to thank the members of Calvary Church for inviting us to be a part of the July 10 evening service. As Bible League focuses on sending the word to "every tribe and nation," we were able to join our voices to "proclaim the glory of the Lord"! Many were also blessed by the songs sung by the Gospel Singers and the fellowship time that followed. All praise to God for your generous support!

Reaching the nations... from the Netherlands!* Steve and Chelsey Nugteren, missionaries with the Navigators in the Netherlands, will be at Calvary on Sunday August 14. They will have a short presentation and Q&A time after the morning service. All are welcome to come and learn more about their work in one of the most diverse cities in Europe.

Council Nominations: Each July, the council begins the process of elder and deacon nominations for the following year. You are asked to prayerfully consider submitting a list of qualified nominees prior to the next meeting of the Administrative Team in August. Nomination forms include a qualifications checklist and eligibility criteria, and are in your church mailbox. Additional copies are available at the Welcome Center. Please return nomination forms by Sunday July 31st
